EXPERIENCE

2022 - Today Full Stack Developer
Angry Ventures

As a Full Stack Developer, I build dynamic web applications and custom solutions using modern technologies like Node.js, React, and WordPress, delivering smooth user experiences from frontend to backend.

2017 - 2021 Co-Founder/Web Developer
Rubik.Solutions

In 2017 me and a friend created a pioneer digital agency in Patras, Greece. Almost five years later, I decided to leave with a bag full of experiences. In those years I was the main web developer and project manager and responsible for a team of five developers.

2016 - 2017 Junior PHP Developer
food-delivery.gr

In my first steps in PHP, I worked in the dev team of an Online Food Delivery Platform. My main responsibility was to scale the platform and implement new features.

2012 - Today Freelancing

From the start of my career, I was working on different projects at freelance marketplaces and website development of local businesses.
